Join us for a ‘bring your own’ Lunch and Learn
Tuesday, July 24th
11:30am-12:30pm
SOM 153A

Presenter: Mike Butts

Do you believe you are adequately controlling, monitoring and responding to the changing needs of your personal lifestyle, the current economy or your long-term goals? By pulling together all these components of daily financial living, we believe we can better address your goals and activate the path to comprehensive financial success.

You do not need to be an Emory Alliance Credit Union member to benefit from this presentation.

Register in the Learning Management System; Search Catalog; enter SOM

Questions? Contact Rachelle Lehner (rlehner@emory.edu)

Emory University encourages the full participation of individuals with disabilities in all aspects of campus living and learning. If accommodations are required, please contact Rachelle Lehner (rlehner@emory.edu) immediately so arrangements can be made.