WORKPLACE FLEXIBILITY SURVEY

flexible schedules • compressed workweeks • telecommuting

The Emory WorkLife Resource Center, in partnership with the Office of Institutional Research, is conducting a campus-wide survey of Emory staff on the topic of Workplace Flexibility.

Your input is very important as it will help us to identify some of the key issues surrounding this topic as well plan any future flexibility initiatives.

Participation in this survey will be confidential.

Watch for an email from the WorkLife Resource Center on October 31, 2011 or log on to the Emory Worklife Resource Center website at www.worklife.emory.edu for information on how to access this important survey.
